

CARRYING DEADLY WEAPONS.—Gen. Sickles' recent order prohibits the barbers' practice of carrying deadly weapons. We desire to see this wholesome regulation strictly enforced.

A new Republican daily paper has just been started in New Orleans. It rings clear for freedom and equal rights. One should be immediately started in Charleston.

"Union Leagues" are being established through the State with great success. Many whites are becoming members. Union is strength.

THE STATIONS OF THE NORTHEASTERN RAIL ROAD, known as Strawberry and Gaillard's, will be discontinued after the 1st proximo, and a new one midway between them established.

BETWEEN!

Let the country people beware of the "Landsharks" when they come to the city. Keep clear of rum shops, gambling hells, and dens of vice. If you want to keep your money or your character beware of evil men! Go not in the way of the destroyer for it is death!

Those who wish to enjoy a rare luxury, and the same time keep cool in these exciting times, should read Larcombe's advertisement, and then govern themselves accordingly.

NOT A PRACTICAL JOKE.—The ex-rebels of Tennessee, as a practical joke, propose to elect a colored man Governor of the State. The only thing that stands in their way is, that no decent colored man will consent to run on their ticket, and if they should find one so debased as to accept a nomination from them, no decent colored man would vote for him. So it will be a hard matter for the rebels to carry out their "joke."—Norfolk Repub.

NORTHERN AID.—The Raleigh Standard thus appeals to the North for help:

In our ranks are found the colored voting population. They should be visited and incessantly taught their duty and their rights. We need aid. Will not our rich and powerful friends in the North help us? Let their great men come down and confer with us—address our people, and sow the seeds of reconstruction broadcast over the land. It is a great work, and no effort should be spared to ensure success.

We can also assure our friends that if their orators come down, the people will turn out in hundreds to hear them. Why therefore, should they delay? The harvest is ripe, but the laborers are few.

THE BOY AND THE MAN.—A long time ago, a little boy 12 years old, on his way to Vermont, stopped at a country tavern and paid for his lodging and breakfast by sawing wood, instead of asking it as a gift. Fifty years later the same boy passed the same little inn as George Peabody, the banker, whose name is the synonym of magnificent charities—the honored of two hemispheres.

Private advices received here indicate a considerable emigration from New England to New York and Pennsylvania.

F. G. DeFontaine, editor and proprietor of the South Carolinian, denies the statement that his paper has been sold to Beverly Nash, to be converted into a freedman's organ.

NEW ORLEANS, April 24.—The Chief of Police of this city has been discharged by order of General Sheridan, for alleged discouragement of the registration of colored people.

OBITUARY.

DIED, after a short illness, in the City of New York, on November 23d, 1866, George McKinley. It was hard for us to believe that he whom we daily expected among us, would indeed return; but alas, chilled in the embrace of death.

Possessed of a heart of fine sensibilities and intellect clear and vigorous, whilst his sterling integrity of character endeared him to us all. Low we miss that voice which rejoiced or sympathised with us; as our political horizon brightened or darkened. He was summoned away at the dawn of that better era to his native State, for which he so earnestly awaited and prayed. But God willed it thus, and to His decree we humbly submitted.

What comfort can we offer that stricken household, who awaited his return home to greet him with every demonstration which affection could suggest?

"Their blood an even tenor kept Until the fatal message came God's fingers touched him and he slept."

The voice of friendship was hushed in the presence of their sacred grief; human sympathy was incommeasurable with the agony of that bitter hour; but pitying angels bent from above, unseen by eyes of flesh, and whispered of the sustaining grace of Him, the lowly Nazarene, who came to earth to comfort them that wept. And then they mourned him not as dead.

"Nor blame we death because he bare, The use of virtue out of earth; We know transplanted human worth, Yet bloom to profit elsewhere."

With this we laid him in his native earth to rest, there "God's sunshine rests upon him and the angel of the resurrection will find him."

SIDNEY,

Headquarters Second Military District, (NORTH CAROLINA AND SOUTH CAROLINA) COLUMBIA, S. C., March 21st, 1867. [GENERAL ORDERS No. 1.]

1. IN COMPLIANCE WITH GENERAL ORDERS No. 10, Headquarters of the Army, March 11th, 1867, the undersigned hereby assumes command of the Second Military District constituted by the Act of Congress, Public No. 68, 2d March, 1867, entitled "An Act for the more efficient government of the rebel states."

H. In the execution of the duty of the Commanding General to maintain the security of the inhabitants in their persons and property, to suppress insurrection, disorder and violence, and to punish or cause to be punished all disturbers of the public peace and criminals, the local civil tribunals will be permitted to take jurisdiction of and try offenders, excepting only such cases as may be by the order of the Commanding General referred to a Commission or other military tribunal for trial.

HII. The civil government now existing in North Carolina and South Carolina is provisional only, and in all respects subject to the paramount authority of the United States, at any time and in any manner.

III. Local laws and municipal regulations not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of the United States, or the proclamations of the President, or with such regulations as are or may be prescribed in the orders of the Commanding General, are hereby declared to be in force, and, in conformity therewith, civil officers are hereby authorized to continue the exercise of their proper functions, and will be respected and obeyed by the inhabitants.

IV. Whenever any Civil Officer, Magistrate or Court neglects or refuses to perform an official act properly required of such tribunal or officer, whereby due and rightful security to person or property shall be denied, the case will be reported by the Post Commander to these Headquarters.

V. Post Commanders will cause to be arrested persons charged with the commission of crimes and offences when the civil authorities fail to arrest and bring such offenders to trial, and will hold the accused in custody for trial by Military Commission. Provost Court or other tribunal organized pursuant to orders from these Headquarters. Arrests by military authority will be reported promptly. The charges preferred will be accompanied by the evidence on which they are founded.

VI. The Commanding General, desiring to preserve tranquility and order by means and agencies most congenial to the people, solicits the zealous and cordial co-operation of civil officers in the discharge of their duties, and the aid of all good citizens in preventing conduct tending to disturb the peace, and to the end that occasion may seldom arise for the exercise of military authority in matters of ordinary civil administration, the Commanding General respectfully and earnestly commends to the people and authorities of North and South Carolina unreserved obedience to the authority now established, and the diligent, considerate and impartial execution of the laws enacted for their government.

VII. All orders heretofore published to the Department of the South are hereby continued in force.

The following named officers are announced as the staff of the Major General Commandant:

Capt. J. W. Clous, 38th U. S. Infantry, Act. Asst. Adj't Gen. and Aide-de-Camp.

Capt. Alexander Moore, 38th U. S. Infantry, Aide-de-Camp.

Bvt. Maj. J. R. Myrick, 1st Lieut. 3d Art. Aide-de-Camp and Act. Judge Advocate.

GET THE BEST.

A COMPREHENSIVE DICTIONARY OF THE BIBLE.

MAINLY ABRIDGED FROM DR. WM. SMITH'S DICTIONARY OF THE BIBLE.

WITH

Important Additions and Improvements, and Five Hundred Illustrations.

Dr. Smith's Dictionary of the Bible, published in 1860-'63, and containing, in its three large octavo volumes, nearly 3,200 pages, is a work of acknowledged excellence; but its size, cost, and scholarly character, must prevent any extensive circulation of it among the great mass of those who desire and need a Dictionary of the Bible. The "Comprehensive Dictionary," on which nearly two years of editorial labor have already been expended, owes its origin to a settled conviction, on the part of the Editor and Publishers, of the need of such a modified abridgment of the original work as should make the results of modern scholarship generally accessible.

The Editor, Rev. Samuel W. Barnum, M. A., is well known among the graduates of Yale College as an accurate and thorough scholar. His experience in 1845-'47, as the principal assistant of the late Prof. Goodrich, in the revision of Webster's Dictionary (unabridged and royal octavo edition), made him familiar with the details of lexicography; and his subsequent labors as an official expounder of the Scriptures, gave him a practical acquaintance with the wants of the people in the field of Biblical knowledge.

The "General Principles" which have guided in the preparation of the present work have been:

I. To make every thing intelligible to those who understand only English, and to place them as nearly as possible on a level with the scholars who are familiar with the original languages of the Scriptures.

II. To condense the greatest possible amount of valuable information into one volume of convenient size and moderate cost.

III. To guard against all influences hostile to Christian faith and love.

IV. The page is somewhat larger than that of Smith's Dictionary, and the type of a heavier face, and more easily read. No pains will be spared to make the mechanical execution accurate and beautiful.

The "Dictionary" will be issued in semi-monthly numbers of 28 royal octavo pages each. The whole work will probably be contained in about 22 numbers.

PRICE OF EACH NUMBER IN A NEAT PAPER COVER, THIRTY CENTS.
